JUAN A. PICHARDO MENDEZ)

SECOND JOINT STIPULATION AND PROPOSED FINDINGS WITH RESPECT TO APPLICATION OF THE SPEEDY TRIAL ACT

In response to the Court's Order of February 11, 2016, the parties hereby jointly move the Court to accept the following joint stipulation regarding the application of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161, et seq. to this case:

- (a) since the defendant's initial appearance, 229 days have elapsed and 228 days will have elapsed as of both the final date of the current pending period of excludable time and the currently scheduled trial date; and
- (b) since the defendant's initial appearance, 180 days of excludable time has elapsed and, as of both the final date of the current pending period of excludable time and the currently scheduled trial date, 233 days of excludable time will have elapsed.

The parties further stipulate that, as of the currently scheduled trial date, 49 days of non-excludable time will have elapsed and 21 days of non-excludable time will remain.

Respectfully submitted,

EMILY GRAY RICE
United States Attorney
